

STATEMENT BY MORDECHAI SPIEGLER

Jerome Champagne 's heart beats for football and for the world.

Knowing him for more than fifteen years now, I support his bid for the FIFA presidency because of his vision, his commitments to strengthen the game and its governance as well as its values.

Moreover Jerome knows my region, the Middle East, very well and will be able to use the love and power of football as a tool for the benefit of us all here.

Good luck Jerome !
